FLYING DUTCHMAN'S PROWESS.

There are few as fast and hardly faster racing tools in this country than Pat Dunne's big chestnut horse Flying Dutchman. He is not any too good of legs. They have been under suspicion since 1895. Cliff Porter introduced the Dutchman to the turf. Col. W. L. Simmons owned his dam, Glen Mercy, and owns her still. The colt was bred by him, was highly tried and turned over to Porter to train. Porter had introduced Pat Dunne to many a good horse. He had tried to make him buy Clifford two seasons before. Porter told Dunne that the Dutchman was high of class and sturdy. Pat was after that kind. He always was, since he has had the price, steadily discarding the bad ones for something better. He paid Colonel Simmons $8,500 for the Dutchman. Dockstader, his half brother, was thrown in for good measure. Pat sold the half brother as soon as he found out how common he was. But he hung on to the Dutchman and for four years has beaten all sorts of horses with him. He was consistent as well as fast.

As a two-year-old Flying Dutchman won eight races. His first start was for a purse at Nashville, which he won. His next was at Lexington where he won the La Belle Stakes worth $1,700 to the winner. He was then brought to Hawthorne where, after winning a purse, he captured the Juvenile Stakes, netting $2,030. At Washington Park he won a purse but Frank K. beat him a half length for the Quickstep Stakes. He was taken down east, but second to Connoisseur in a purse at Brooklyn was his only mark. He was brought back to Chicago and wound up his campaign with winning a couple of purses at Hawthorne.

It was in 1895 as a three-year-old that Flying Dutchman came to be recognized as a star of the first magnitude. After winning a purse at Harlem and another at Hawthorne, he was taken to Cincinnati and started for the Liberty Stakes at Oakley. At the end of a smashing race, that other great colt Lissak was first, Simon W. second, and Flying Dutchman third. The mile and a quarter was done in 2:08. He then ran second to O'Connell at six furlongs and straightaway won three purses. In the Telegraph Stakes he again met Lissak and this time won, but he had ten pounds pull in the weights, 117 to 127. The mile and an eighth was done in 1:54, and the stake was worth $2,395. He next beat St. Maxim in a mile dash for a purse in 1:40, and from Oakley was taken to Saratoga, where he ran second to Counter Tenor for a purse. At Sheepshead Bay he beat Patrian, Beldemere and other fast ones, a mile dash in 1:39, and won the Reapers Stakes, worth $1,400 net. In the September Stakes he ran third, Nanki Pooh 108, winning, with Counter Tenor 105, second, Flying Dutchman carried 122. At Brooklyn he won the Ocean View Handicap, value $1,125, and the Fulton Handicap, value, $1,350. He wound up his season at Latonia by winning the Cincinnati Hotel Handicap, worth $1,920, for which, carrying 118 pounds he defeated Henry Young, 104, Buck Massie, 112, Yo Tambien, 106, and Lehman, 112. In all, he ran this year twenty races, of which he won thirteen, was second in four, third in one and was twice unplaced.

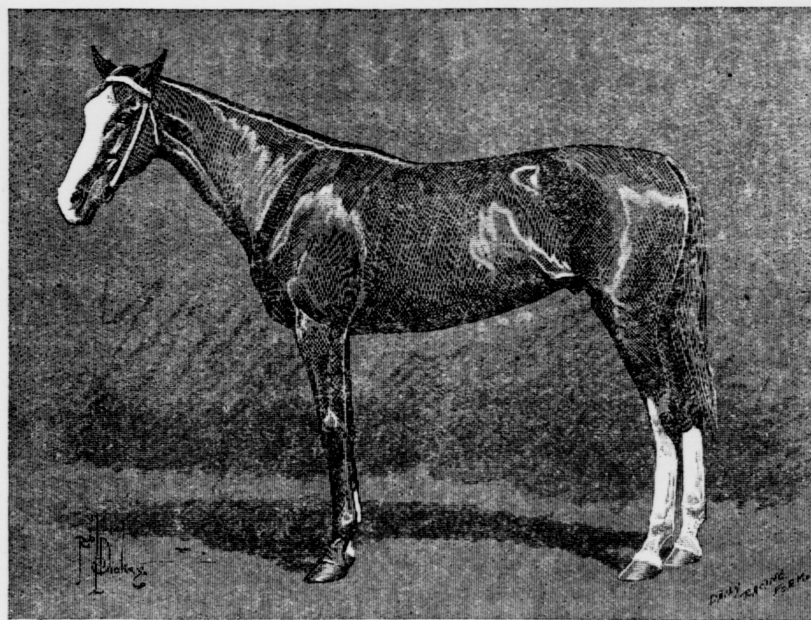

As a four-year-old Flying Dutchman ran in thirteen races and won seven, being twice second, once third and thrice unplaced. His first start was at Memphis where he won a purse and was second to Royal Choice in another, giving the latter a lot of weight. At St. Louis he won three purses and the Independence Stakes, value $1,920, but Buck Massie and Ramiro beat him for the Club Members' Handicap, and Dan Honig's crack Magnet beat him a mile in 1:40, very fast for the St. Louis track. At Sheepshead Bay he won a sweepstakes and closed the season's campaign by capturing the First Special at Brooklyn, for which he beat Dutch Skater, Ben Eder, Ramiro and others.

In 1897 ailing legs made him a difficult horse to train and he was only started in seven races, of which he won four. At Sheepshead Bay he won a sweepstakes and at Saratoga a purse and the Spencer Handicap, for which he beat game old Sir Walter. It netted $1,800. At Sheepshead Bay he ran second to Ornament for the Twin City Handicap in one of the greatest races ever run. Ornament carried 118 and Flying Dutchman 121. The mile and a quarter was done in 2:05, and practically all the stars of the turf were behind the pair. Flying Dutchman then closed his career by winning the Culver Handicap at Brooklyn, worth $1,430 from Hastings, Peat, Octagon and Previous.

His tabulated record is as follows:

Yr.	Age	Races	1	2	3	Unp.	Won.
1894	2	18	8	2	0	8	$ 6,705
1895	3	20	13	4	1	2	12,405
1896	4	13	7	2	1	3	6,160

PAT DUNNE'S FLYING DUTCHMAN, CH. H. 7, BY WAGNER—GLEN MERCY.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

It was reported last fall that W. R. Letcher had assumed charge of H. L. Frank's horses and would train and campaign them this year. It seems, however, that he had only engaged to look after them during the winter, and he has recently turned them over to J. K. Redmon, who has been engaged as trainer by Frank. The horses, Senator Bland, Bitter Root, E. Come, Mallakawa and Owyhee, are at the Latonia track and are reported to be in good condition for training. Besides these Redmon also has his own horses, Serrano, John Havlin, Lucky Star, Tom Milsome and Ashlock to look after.

At the New Orleans racetrack this afternoon Scully & Bush will sell a number of horses in training. The most important feature of the sale will be the following draft from the stable of George J. Long: Romano, b. f. 2, by Volante—Alveritas; Bahia, b. f. 2, by Pardee—Countess;

Jenness, b. f. 2, by St. George—Savilla; Norina, ch. f. 2, by Pardee—Rainbow; Zolo, b. g. 5, by Harry O'Fallon—Zuma; Coanza, b. f. 3, by Bob Miles—Rainfall; Tarsus, b. c. 3, by Azra—Quindaro Belle.

Jerome Bonaparte Respass, turfman, recently received a letter from M. Nathanson, the Secretary of the Harlem Jockey Club, which stated that the promoters of racing around Chicago expected to open this season some time in April on one of the Indiana tracks. After fifteen days the racing would be transferred to Harlem—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Money should not be sent to the firm of Mahoney & Co., 334 Third Avenue, New York. The firm issued odds for the Brooklyn Handicap but have not answered to letters containing money sent it and cannot be vouched for. John & James Mahoney of New York, well known in bookmaking circles, have nothing to do with Mahoney & Co.

E. F. Simms' horses, including the Derby candidate, The Kentuckian, were shipped to Memphis last week from Louisville, where they have been wintering. A two-year-old colt by Albert in this stable is said to be a "real clinker."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

In a recent interview published in a Memphis newspaper R. W. Walden, who has the A. H. & D. H. Morris western string in charge at Memphis, said: "Mr. Morris is very anxious to win the Crescent City Derby with the Kentucky Colonel, and he was sent to Memphis especially to be conditioned for that race. Montgomery Park had been highly recommended as a training ground for horses, and that influenced us in sending our stable here. The colt was well seasoned before leaving Maryland. He had been galloped for six weeks, and if the weather moderates within the next six or seven days there will still be plenty of time to get him ready for the New Orleans stake."

"Kentucky Colonel and Manuel, together with Gold Fox, Village Pride, and our two-year-olds, will be raced at New Orleans, Memphis, Louisville, Latonia, and will not be sent east until fall. The two first named are entered in all of the Derbys to be run up the line from Memphis, and have no eastern engagements. And that is the reason we declare Glenheim out of the Tennessee Derby. He is the only three-year-old owned by Messrs. Morris that was entered as a yearling in the east, and therefore we determined to keep him at Bowling Brook farm and condition him for his eastern engagement."

"Glenheim has wintered well, and if he trains will make his first start at Morris Park, where he is entered in the Withers and the Belmont. The first is at a mile and the Belmont is a mile and three furlongs. The other three-year-olds at Bowling Brook are Filigrane and Vertigo. Filigrane has finished into a magnificent horse and is one of the best lookers I ever saw. We have entered Glenheim, Filigrane and Vertigo in all the big stakes that closed this year."

"I have two very promising three-year-olds myself at the farm, Knight of Silver, by Knight of Ellerslie, out of a Longfellow mare, and Latch Key, by Logic. They both look well, and as yearlings gave promise of being very high class, but both went wrong and were thrown out of training as two-year-olds. They apparently have rounded to and will also be trained for their stake engagements in the east."

The Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune prints the following about the Leigh-Coulter-Cushing training discussion.

Colonel W. E. Applegate and Jerome Bonaparte Respass were discussing Eugene Leigh's controversy with James Cushing and T. W. Coulter on his abilities as a trainer yesterday, when John Payne, the poolroom man, said:

"I guess that will hurt Leigh as a public trainer."

"Don't you believe it," laughingly replied Respass, "that is a little kidding match Leigh has started with Cushing and Coulter."

"Of course it is," interjected Colonel Applegate. "Why, Leigh is handling some of Coulter's two-year-olds. The latter would not let him have the youngsters if he thought Leigh could not train."

"Pay no attention to what Leigh, Cushing or Coulter has to say to each other on the training question," said Respass, "they all know their business pretty well, and this 'controversy' is amusing, but a good advertisement at that."

Thursday's San Francisco Examiner says: "Maxey Blumenthal had a very bad day in his book and also with outside bets yesterday. Altogether he lost about $2,700. He played Opponent, which belongs to his partner, B. J. Weller, heavily. Blumenthal says he is through with bookmaking on the coast for this season, and expects to leave for Hot Springs, Ark., some time next week."

Winner—B. m. by St. Andrew—Hattie Ball.

Start fair. Won easily. Next seven driving. Widow Jones got away flying and won all the way. She was best and can evidently go a route. Ballister ran his race and had clear sailing.
Gracias, away slowly, made up a lot of ground and finished strong. Crawford ran a fair race and was coming at the end. Imposing. Sierra Blanco was badly handled. Jennie Gibb ran greenly. Had speed. Watch her. Jerilderio's race will not do. Throw it out.

Scratched—10681 Bessie Lee, 101.

Overweights Sierra Blanco, 4 pounds.

Winner—Br. f. by St. Andrew—Glencola.

Start fair. Won driving. It was a tremendous finish with nine horses right there. Glen Ann was lucky in securing an early lead and a good ride. Henry C. ran in improved form, and finished stoutly. Joe Mussel was nearly left and closed up a big gap. With an even break he would have won. Billy McCloskey ran his race. So did McFarlane. Roadrunner was pocketed and badly managed. He was probably the best horse and his race should be thrown out.

Scratched—10644 Melvin Burnham, 103.

Winner—B. c. by Watercress—Everglade.

Start fair. Won in a mild drive. Con Dalton has wonderfully improved. He won on luck, though. Goal Runner was much the best. He was nearly knocked down on the turn and hung after much use to get up. Yaruba ran a fair race, about to the mark. Sir Urian is good. Watch him. Was badly ridden. Dunpraise is only of account in mud.

Winner—Ch. b. by Macduff—Albertha.

Start fair. Won easily. Satsuma was much the best and won under restraint. San Mateo was speedy but was short and should be improved by the race. Eddie Jones hardly ran to the mark. A longer route suits him best. Guilder finished well and ran a fair race. The other two were out of their class. Earl Cochran is good however and when placed right is worth consideration.

Scratched—10710 Montallade, 101; 10679 Espionage, 89.

San Mateo, place, evens; show, 2 to 5.

AMERICAN TURF CONGRESS HISTORY.

The creation idea of the American Turf Congress is shown in the following by-law: This organization shall be known as the American Turf Congress, and has for its object the improvement of the breed and the development of horses through promotion of the interests of the American running turf; the prevention, detection and punishment of fraud thereon; and the adoption of regulations and rules, to be known as the American Racing Rules for the uniform government of racing.

The following are the first minutes of the American Turf Congress, as shown by its records:

LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 21, 1883.

The Turf Committee met at the rooms of the Louisville Jockey Club at 12 o'clock, Wednesday, November 21st, the following gentlemen being present: T. J. Megibben and E. D. Lawrence, Latonia Jockey Club, Covington, Ky.;

James F. Robinson, Kentucky Association, Lexington, Ky.; John M. Harney and L. A. Clark, St. Louis Jockey Club, St. Louis, Mo.; James Franklin and G. W. Darden, Blood Horse Association, Nashville, Tenn.; R. C. Pate and D. L. Hall, Driving Park, Chicago, Ill.; J. E. Brewster, Washington Park, Chicago, Ill.; R. W. Simmons, New Orleans Jockey Club and Brighton Beach, N. Y.; R. S. Montgomery, Jockey Club, Memphis, Tenn.; M. L. Clark and B. G. Bruce, Jockey Club, Louisville, Ky.

The breeding and racing interest was represented by C. L. Hunt, St. Louis, Mo.; Charles Reed, Saratoga, N. Y.; Gen. A. Buford and John Funk, Kentucky.

The meeting was called to order by Col. M. L. Clark, who stated that the object for which the meeting had been called was to establish a uniform scale of weights and adopt suitable rules for the government of racing and to take action in all matters that would tend to advance racing interests in all parts of America.

On Colonel Clark's motion T. J. Megibben was called to the chair and B. G. Bruce appointed secretary. Colonel Hunt moved that a committee of five be appointed on a scale of weights, and the chair appointed Colonel Clark, G. W. Darden, L. A. Clark, R. W. Simmons and Colonel Hunt. Colonel Clark moved that a committee be appointed to frame a uniform set of rules which was carried and the chair appointed Messrs. Lawrence, Harney, Brewster, Franklin, Pate, Simmons, Montgomery and Bruce. In order to give the committees time to prepare their reports the convention adjourned until 7:30 p.m.

On re-assembling the committee on weights submitted their report which was adopted without discussion. The committee on rules not being ready to report were given further time and made their report on Friday morning at 9 o'clock, and the by-laws, rules and regulations and betting rules were adopted as published.

Captain Franklin moved, and it was adopted, that clubs running under these rules agree to harmonize in all things as far as practicable and especially as to the time of holding their meetings, and will not by extra days before or after the regular time, interfere with time of other associations.

On motion of Colonel Clark, which was adopted, the different associations and clubs were requested to run under these rules and regulations as adopted by this convention so as to secure uniformity in racing and its government.

On motion B. G. Bruce was elected secretary for the ensuing year.

On motion Chicago, Ill., was selected for the next meeting, the second Wednesday in November, 1884.

There being no further business the convention adjourned. B. G. BRUCE, Secretary.

The next meeting was held at Chicago, Ill., on November 12, 1884. The minutes were as follows:

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 12, 1884.

The convention met at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, November 12, 1884, at the office of the Washington Park Club, Palmer House, Chicago, Ill. In the absence of the president the secretary called the meeting to order, and by unanimous vote, Col. M. Lewis Clark was called to the chair. Several telegrams and letters were read authorizing parties to act for their clubs and letters from Monmouth Park, Jerome Park and Coney Island declining to send delegates.

The following clubs were represented: Louisiana Jockey Club, Memphis Jockey Club, Louisville Jockey Club, Kentucky Association, Lexington, Ky.; Latonia Jockey Club, Fair Association, St. Louis, Mo.; Pittsburg Jockey Club, Brighton Beach Association and Washington Park Club, Chicago, Ill.

On motion of J. E. Brewster the rules of racing were taken up and the convention went into executive session for their consideration. The rules were carefully considered each by each and the changes made are published in the rules.

On motion of Colonel Clark, which was adopted, the forfeit orders issued by Chicago Driving Park in 1884 would not be recognized by other clubs, as they had failed to pay their own purses.

A new by-law was adopted defining the duties of the secretary and fixing his salary at $100 per annum (for which, see in the by-laws).

B. G. Bruce was elected secretary for the coming year and St. Louis was selected for the next meeting of the convention on the second Wednesday of November, 1885. There being no further business the convention adjourned Thursday evening, November 13, 1884.

B. G. BRUCE, Secretary.

The next meeting was held at St. Louis, November 11, 1885. Gen. J. F. Robinson was made president.

The next meeting was held at Cincinnati, Ohio, on November 10, 1886.

For the first time in the minutes the name American Turf Congress appears. Always heretofore the assembly had been referred to as the "Convention," but at this meeting the minutes began "The American Turf Congress met," etc., etc. Mr. Charles Green was made president.

Judging from the rules the name American Turf Congress was adopted at the 1885 meeting, and so appeared in the rules of 1886.

The first secretary, B. G. Bruce, died in 1891, and E. C. Hopper was elected to fill his place.
